We invite you to participate in the 17th International Conference on Communication in Healthcare (ICCH) organized by the Academy of Communication in Healthcare (ACH) in partnership with EACH: International Association for Communication in Healthcare.

This cutting-edge research and educational event will be held at the Wyndham Grand Golf & Beach Resort - Rio Mar, Puerto Rico, October 17-20, 2021!

There is no better way to get the information you need to improve your performance in healthcare communication, increase positive patient outcomes, and connect with like-minded professionals who share your passion for improving healthcare communication than the largest gathering of researchers, educators, clinicians and administrators from around the globe.
